A Note From Anni:

Anni Wunderlich, President

Hi Everyone:

Hard to believe that we're more than halfway through the year.

Our "Fourth of July Parade" on the 5th, with MIKE 'n JOYCE (who kindly stepped in for NEIL) was a HUGE Success, and most dancers came in their patriotic RED, WHITE, and BLUE. Mike and Joyce did a great job and we consider ourselves very fortunate to have them as part of our DJ team.

July 19 was our "Hawaiian Hustle" with guest DJ CLINT Qualls; it was great to have Clint back with us again, and he really did do a super job for the 80 plus dancers dressed Hawaiian attire. We were very fortunate to have a special performance by "The Gracious Ladies" from the Hula Halau Makalapua School in San Bruno. They did two dances for us, "These Islands" and Keep Your Eyes on the Hands". Two of the "gracious ladies" are members of Quicksteppers, Tina Beare and Patricia O'Kane; how fortunate we are to have such talent in our club, thank you so much for sharing it with us.

I made an announcement that night—after all these years I became an American Citizen on Tuesday, July 15 and my dear friend, Lorraine Kurtela (Mumsie) made a surprise strawberry cream cake in my honor; on top was an American flag, and the words "Congrats to Anni". Thank you Mumsie, I love you.

"Whipper Snappers" is our next dance, on August 2 with the King, NEIL Hale-and if you're a whipper snapper under 40, you get in FREE.

We are having a New Year's Eve dance this year, and flyers will be available soon. Our 21st Birthday Bash is on September 6; it's a Pot-Luck dinner and everyone gets in free if they bring a dish to share.

Please renew your membership, and if you're not a member, please become one.
