A note from Anni:

Anni Wunderlich, President.

Hello members:

I hope you're enjoying our beautiful summer weather.

July 3 was our "Red, White and Blue" dance with DJ's Mike 'n Joyce. Eighty plus dancers helped Quicksteppers celebrate Independence Day; and what a great job Mike 'n Joyce did keeping the floor filled with energetic, happy dancers. Check out the photos on page 4.

July 17 was "Juke Box Saturday Night" with the King, Neil Hale, and despite the temperature on stage being about 120 degrees, Neil did his usual outstanding job; he is indeed our favorite King.

Our next dance is on July 31 and "Yellow fever" is the theme; Tina and Jeanette will be the DJ's, and they'll also be the DJ's for our "Hot August Nights" on August 21.

We're having a Pajama Party on August 7, with DJ's Mike 'n Joyce, so wear your favorite PJ's and bring your favorite Teddy Bear, if you have one.

Cont.

Rita Garcia wishes to thank those of you who donated so generously for the group of missionaries in Africa.

One of our members asked me how many could sit at a 'reserved' table on New Year's Eve. So, for those of you who are interested, each table will seat eight comfortably, but if you don't mind being 'chummy' you could squeeze ten at a table. Don't forget, you can decorate your own table and win a prize if it's voted the best. More to come in the New Year's Eve flyer.

If you haven't renewed your membership, we'd really appreciate it if you'd do so as soon as possible, and if you know of anyone who attends our dances, and isn't a member, try and convince them to become one. It will be Country Quicksteppers 23rd birthday in September, and we need you to help keep the Club going for another 23 years .. some of us will be coming in with the aid of 'walkers', that is, if we haven't already fallen off the perch.

I hope from time to time you check out our website .. countryquicksteppers.org. Shirley Sellers, our web guru, is doing a fine job of keeping it interesting and current.

Don't forget .. For a good time, stand in line at Quicksteppers.

Cheerio,
