A note from Anni:

Anni Wunderlich, President

Hi Everyone:

Before I go any further, I owe an apology to Gary Davidson, Sr. In the February Shooter I thanked everyone and his dog for help on New Year's Eve, but not Gary for being our official photographer. Gary not only took time out of his evening to take photos, he also showed them throughout the evening on a computer screen, and made CD's for those who wanted them ... thank you Gary.

January 31 was "Superbowl Saturday" with the DJ Duke, Gary Clayton. What a fabulous Superbowl PARTY it turned out to be, not only did we have a turnout of 79 dancers who brought absolutely delicious food to nibble on, but Gary really kept "the joint jumping" with a great mix of dances.

February 7 was our "Red is for Valentines" dance with DJ's MIKE 'n JOYCE. Most dancers wore red, and even though there was an event in Palm Springs, we still had 60 + dancers in attendance, a few of whom are students of Mike 'n Joyce. Mike did a quick teach of "Try to Remember, choreographed by Maria Tao.

We celebrated "Mardi Gras" on February 21 with the King, NEIL Hale. Once again we had a great turnout, with 60+ energized dancers filling the floor to a fine selection of music provided by the King himself.

Our next dance is "Purple People Eater" on March 7, with EVELYN 'n DENNY. Not only does it give you the opportunity to wear PURPLE again, but also to try and remember the words to the song of the same name.

March 21 is our "It's Not Easy Being Green" dance with CLINT Qualls; you all enjoyed this theme so much last year, that we decided to repeat it. This is the same Saturday as "Boogie 'til the Cows Come Home", so those of you who aren't attending 'Boogie", please come along and support CLINT.

I want to thank all our members and friends for the excellent snacks you have been providing, apparently CQ's is getting quite a reputation for its 'good food'.

Well, by the time you receive this publication, I'll be in the land 'down under' visiting my 98 year old mother, our son and grandson, and the rest of my family and friends. Fortunately no one I know was affected by the devastating fires, although one of the fires was approximately 2 miles from my brother's country home.

We have a new Web Master—Shirley Sellers

Shirley is originally from up-state New York. She met her husband 43 years ago in the Washington, D.C. area. They lived in Wisconsin, Illinois, and Arizona before moving to Sunnyvale, Calif. 27 years ago. They have two married sons, and are blessed with three granddaughters.

After her retirement six years ago, Shirley and a friend were looking for a new adventure. They enrolled in Mike Shannon's beginner line dance class at the Cupertino Senior Center. It took two years of beginner classes before Shirley felt competent to move up to the next level. Now she regularly attends three classes taught by Mike or Joyce Shannon. She likes to line dance because it is good for the body, the mind, and it's just plain fun. An unexpected benefit has been the new friends she has met on the dance floor.

Shirley's technical background includes printed page layout as well as web page creation. She feels fortunate to inherit the Country Quicksteppers web site from Belinda, who's web page design and organization have been outstanding. Shirley hopes to maintain the high standards set by Belinda. We are lucky to have found someone with her skills and willingness to take over our club web site. Be sure to visit it at countryquicksteppers.com sometime soon
