A message from Anni:

Anni Wunderlich,
President

Hi everyone:

Please accept my sincere apologies for the Shooter being late. Cathy has the Straight Shooter set up in the Publisher program, makes the necessary alterations every two months, and sends it on to me. I write my letter, then save the publication in PDF form, and send it out to you. Once again I am unable to open Publisher, so I have written my letter in Word, sent it to Cathy, and she is retyping it in Publisher, saving it in PDF form, and sending it back to me for distribution. Whew! Microsoft are in the throes of discontinuing the Publisher program as of October 1st, so we have no idea what program Cathy and I will be able to use in the future.

Hopefully I won't make this letter too lengthy. We have been having excellent attendance at our dances thanks to you. Saturday, August 15 was Doug and Jackie's "You Can Dance 13" Workshop, and once again it was a HUGE success. They are such a fun, energetic couple, and they always manage to create a 'party' atmosphere. We will all be looking forward to next year's "You Can Dance 14".

We celebrated Country Quick Steppers 39th Birthday on Saturday, September 5 and had 84 dancers in attendance. Mike and Joyce were the DJ's and kept everyone on the floor smiling and dancing.

Saturday, September 19th is our "DJ and Teacher Appreciation" dance. So come along and show how much you appreciate all the time and effort our DJ's and Teachers put into keeping Line Dancing alive and well here in the Bay Area. Susan "Sparkles" Dodge will be our She-Jay.

Saturday, October 3 .. "Clockwork Orange" with DJ's Mike and Joyce.

Saturday, October 17 .. "Nautical and Nice" with DJ's Cathy and Claudio.

With the way this year is racing along, it will be our New Year's Eve dance in no time; we will have the Flyer out very shortly, and I suggest you sign up rather quickly because there will be limited spaces available.

We really appreciate your support, thank you.

Cheerio,

Anni
